London For Dogs Sarah Guy 2017-04-06 London for Dogs features over 120 ideas for things to do with your dog in the city. Organised around each borough from North to South, East to West, there's something to discover whether you want to be surprised by a gem just round the corner or fancy exploring somewhere further afield. Including pubs, cafes and restaurants that welcome dogs with enthusiasm; find the best places to enjoy a quiet hour or meet up with friends, and maybe even discover your new local. As well as London's more obvious green spaces, this guide will also highlight unsung parks, such as the lovely Hilly Fields in South East London. There'll also be suggestions of weekend activities such as the Lee Valley dog agility course, which includes jumps, hoops and a high walk. For less energetic things to do on the weekends, the guide will also cover behaviourists, groomers and quirky dog boutiques where you can treat your pooch to everything from handmade treats to tweed dog collars. Looking to escape city life for a day? The guide also includes inspiration for short trips away, as well as top ten lists for those pushed for time. Whether you're a resident Londoner looking for new dog-friendly inspiration, or a visitor hoping to navigate the city with your four-legged friend, London for Dogs will transform your experience of London. Featuring contributions from journalist and broadcaster Kate Spicer, food writer Debora Robertson and founder of Lily's Kitchen Pet Food, Henrietta Morrison. Recommended Inns and Pubs of Britain FHG Guides 2006-12 Planning a trip to the UK? Phileas Dogg's Guide to Dog Friendly Holidays in Britain Jane Common 2014-05-15 A canine guide to British holidays, seeking out the best dog-friendly days out, beaches, hotels, pubs, campsites, cottages and holidays. An amusing and informative guide, illustrated with photos of different dogs, from pedigrees to mutts, at various locations around Britain. The book builds on the success of the website www.phileasdogg.com, which has been running for 18 months and has a mailing list and social media following in the thousands. The site's main canine correspondent is Atlee, aka Phileas Dogg, a three year old Battersea mongrel, owned by freelance journalist Jane Common. As well as Atlee, the site is written by a team of Rover Reporters from as far afield as the Shetland Isles and Cornwall. In the short time it's been running, the site has been picked up by The Evening Standard and The Guardian - "even if you don't have a dog we urge you to read this"; Waitrose Weekend, Prima, Real People and Dogs Today magazines as well as generating local paper stories around the country, in places where Phileas has visited. Jane has been invited on to BBC Radio as an expert in dog travel and worked with Visit England, the Kennel Club and Battersea Dogs and Cats Home to promote dog-friendly holidays and days out.

The Good Hotel Guide 2003 David Raphael 2002 For over 25 years the bestselling Good Hotel Guide has been acclaimed as the most accurate, honest and insightful hotel guide on the market. Unlike most of its competitors the GHG is 100% independent. The best way to find a good hotel is by personal recommendation. This guide is just that. It has been fairly described as word-of-mouth in print. Unlike any of its competitors, the quality of reporting and writing has become a byword for excellence in the murky field of hotel guides. No other guide manages to combine information with insight, economical reporting with evocative descriptions, delightful bandbs for the budget conscious with stylish hotels for the comfort conscious. It is annually updated and rewritten with totally accurate entries and information. Every entry must have an individual appeal, as well as offering high customer care and value for money. Whether you are looking for an overnight city stay or a luxurious country break the GHG will save you time and money and deliver the perfect hotel for the occasion.

The Dogs' Guide to New York City Jane M. Rohman 1994 The first canine guidebook guaranteed to make city living or visiting more fun for dogs & their owners. Inspired by "the guilts" whenever she had to leave her golden retriever, "Jack" (the book's namesake), Rohman spent a year "trying to take him almost everywhere," finding ways to make the most of New York -- with her pet. The result is an invaluable compendium of dog friendly stores, hotels, restaurants, parks, transportation, wonderful walks & special activities. Also features practical information on local dog laws, kennels, walkers, groomers, trainers, vets & emergency services. Covers Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, Bronx & Staten Island. "Every city should have such a complete guide to its canine haunts."--DOG WORLD. "Enjoying the Big Apple with a canine buddy is easier with publication of this delightful guidebook."--WALL STREET JOURNAL. "Canines can visit a surprising number of New York's shops. F.A.O. Schwarz, for example, lets dogs down its aisles provided they don't bark at the stuffed animals."--NEW YORK TIMES. Available through Baker & Taylor, Bookazine, Koen or publisher (212) 332-0799.
